MRS. FRANK EDWARD FORREST
the former Miss Marie Annette Booker

Wed In Evening Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Marie Annette Booker to Frank Edward Forrest took place Saturday, July 3, 1976 at 6 o'clock in the evening on the lawn at the home of her parents with Rev. R. Q. Lawing officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Booker, Jr. of Route 2, Gladstone and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Forrest of Route 1, Appomattox.

Wedding music was rendered by Mr. Tim Lawing.

The bride was escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents. She wore a traditional gown of polyester organza lined with taffeta with empire waist and A-line skirt. The sculptured neckline, center bodice and waist were trimmed in lace with long, full sleeves and attached full-length chapel train. Her headpiece was a Camelot style cap with lace and pearl trim attached to a two tier nylon tulle veil. She carried a white Bible on which was attached a corsage and baby's breath and ribbon.

Miss Betty Booker was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a mint green dress. Wanda Forrest, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. She wore a peach dress identical to the honor attendant's gown. They each carried a long stemmed mum tinted green and peach with baby's breath and streamers.

Mr. Lloyd Forrest was his son's best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Booker entertained with a reception in their home following the ceremony. Mrs. Lloyd Fleshman, aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl and Miss Margaret Fleshman, aunt of the bride, served the wedding cake assisted by Mrs. Nannie Ruth Watkins, also an aunt of the bride.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Chicago, Ill.

'Miss Appomattox' Will Compete In State Pageant

Throughout Virginia 22 young women are beginning packing and preparing for their trip to Roanoke to compete for the title of "Miss Virginia" at the state pageant July 15, 16, and 17.

Miss Pamela Chenault, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Chenault of Appomattox, will be representing Appomattox County at the pageant. Her sponsor is the Woman's Club of Appomattox.

Each of the 22 contestants will take her hometown's hope for a winner to the pageant where the top contestant will get her share of some $4,000 worth of scholarship awards and other prizes.

More than 300 young women competed in local pageants for the chance to represent their area in the 23rd annual Miss Virginia Pageant to be held at the Roanoke Civic Center. Of the 22 title winners, one will take Virginia's hopes for a Miss America to Atlantic City, N.J., in September when the national pageant will be held.

The contestants are due to arrive, with their chaperones, in Roanoke on Monday, July 12, and will make their first public appearance Wednesday, July 14, at a reception to be given by the Roanoke Valley Chamber of Commerce on the mezzanine of the Civic Center Auditorium.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday are the three big nights of competition for the young women who will be seen in evening gown, swimsuit, and talent competition. Preliminary awards in each category will be given Thursday and Friday nights.

Judging, based on points accumulated by each of the contestants during the week, will be tabulated on Saturday to determine the 10 semifinalists who will be seen a second time in each of the competition categories. This portion of the pageant will be televised by WDBJ-TV in Roanoke, WTAR-TV in Norfolk and WTVR-TV in Richmond beginning at 8:30 p.m.

In addition to the $1,500 scholarship, which will be granted the new Miss Virginia, $2,500 in scholarships will be divided among the four runners-up and a non-finalist talent winner.

Tickets for performances Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights are on sale at the Civic Center in Roanoke. Curtain time for these nights is 8 p.m., and pageant music will be by Freddie Lee and his Orchestra.

The contestants will again be housed at Hotel Roanoke and will be transported by cars to events during pageant week.
